- Receive training on understanding sustainability risks in financial audits and contribute to 21st-century business revolution.
- Communicate with senior management and finance leaders.
- Utilize advanced technology (Alteryx, Power Bi, UiPath) to streamline processes.

What you'll need:

- Graduate/final year student in economics, business administration, finance, accounting, or related fields.
- Motivated by continuous learning.
- Proficiency in English and Croatian languages.
- Strong analytical skills.
- Open-mindedness and curiosity in approaching challenges.
- Proficiency in MS Office tools, especially Excel.
- Agility in adapting to technological advancements.
- Excellent communication and relationship-building skills.
- Ability to collaborate effectively in a team environment.

What We Offer:

- Exposure to diverse industries and international clients.
- Limitless opportunities for professional and personal growth in a supportive environment.
- Challenging projects that enhance your skills and expertise.
- Professional, positive, and team-oriented working environment.
- Dedicated support through our "Coach" and "Buddy" programs to aid integration and performance.
- Comprehensive employment benefit program (including yearly medical checkup, opportunities for sports and recreation, social events and team-building, MultiSport card, and many more)
- Hybrid work model, offering flexibility to work from the PwC office or remotely.
- Convenient central office location.

Join us and experience the thrill of learning by doing. Become part of our Workforce of the Future and unlock your potential in Audit & Finance.
